The Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

2 May 1979

Dear George,

Just wanted to let you know that your choice as a General Counsel for the Agency, [redacted] has really done a superb job. Unfortunately for us, [redacted] feels that he must return to the private sector. He will depart next week and we will miss him sorely. He has performed superbly and won the confidence of everybody in the organization here. We are all grateful to you for having had the perspicacity to select him.

Thought you'd like to know his status. All the best.

Yours,
